Community Patrolling

Mission Statement (What we do)

Community Patrols of New Zealand (CPNZ) is a national organisation that was formed in 2001. It supports over 5,000 volunteers in over 150 affiliated community patrols throughout New Zealand. Community Patrols are organised and operated by their local communities and raise their annual operating expenses through local grants, sponsorships and donations.

Community Patrollers are volunteers working closely with Police as extra “eyes and ears” to assist Police and other agencies to build safer communities. Community Patrols are independent from the Police but receive regular Police guidance, training and tasking.

Tasks

- Car patrolling
- Foot patrolling
- Camera surveillance
- Fundraising

Time commitment

- 4-5 hours per shift (dependent on work load)
- 1-2 shifts per month.

Other comments/skills required

- Able to patrol at nights
- Good observation skills
- Motivated to work as a team
- Driver's licence required
- Suitable for someone with limited English skills
- References and Police vetting required.

Location
